

I'm A Better Anarchist Than You

David Rovics

I don't drive a car be-cause they run on gas But if I did it would run on bi - o - mass I ride a bike or some-times a skate - board So fuck off all you dri-vers and your yup-pie hordes Sit-ting all day in the traf-fic queues
I'm a bet - ter an - ar - chist than you

I don't eat meat I just live on moldy chives or the donuts that I found in last week's dumpster dives look at you people in that restaurant I think you are so sad when you coulda been eating bagels like the ones that i just had I think it is a shame all the bourgeois things you do
I'm a better anarchist than you

I don't wear leather and I like my clothes in black and I made a really cool hammock from a moldy coffee sack I like to hop on freight trains I think that is so cool it's so much funner doing this than being stuck in school I can't believe you're wearing those brand new shiny shoes
I'm a better anarchist than you

I don't have sex and there will be no sequel because heterosexual relationships are inherently unequal I'll just keep on moshing to Anti-Flag and Crass until there are no differences in gender, race or class all you brainwashed breeders you just haven't got a clue
I'm a better anarchist than you

I don't believe in leaders I think consensus is the key I don't believe is stupid notions like representative democracy whether or not it works I know it is the case that only direct action can save the human race so when I see you in your voting booth then I know it's true
I'm a better anarchist than you

I am not a pacifist I like throwing bricks and when the cops have caught me and i've taken a few licks
I always feel lucky if I get a bloody nose because I feel so militant and everybody knows by the time the riot is all through
I'm a better anarchist than you
